MAYOR'S WELCOME

On behalf of the City of Cincinnati, I am honored to invite you to our great city. Cincinnati has invested billions of dollars in recent downtown and riverfront development, including the historic Over-the-Rhine neighborhood and The Banks entertainment district.

Autumn is an especially great time to visit Cincinnati. In addition to watching the leaves change color in our award-winning park system, Cincinnati is host to several festivals at this time of the year including Oktoberfest Zinzinnati at The Banks, the Chrysanthemum show at Krohn Conservatory, and the Cincinnati Chocolate Festival at Xavier University.

Key Magazine Cincinnati is a great resource for learning about the many attractions Cincinnati has to offer. With world-class museums and theaters, one of the top five zoos in the nation, touring Broadway productions, and incredible architecture, Cincinnati has something for everyone to enjoy.

I am confident you will enjoy your stay in Cincinnati. Please enjoy our hospitality, sample our many amenities, and have a wonderful time. We are glad you're here!

Sincerely,

COVER STORY

Mecklenburg Gardens is the hotspot for FC Cincinnati fans

Cincinnati's oldest restaurant, Mecklenburg Gardens, is famous for its Beer Garden, which is now the place for FC Cincinnati's largest fan club, Die Innenstadt, to hang out before soccer games. The members come hours before every game, enjoying beer and appetizers, and then march together as a group to Nippert Stadium and sit in their section in The Bailey. And that's not the only club that drops by: fans of German soccer team Bayern Munchen also get their pre-game on at Mecklenburg Gardens. If you're a soccer fan, this is the hottest place to be!

It's not just soccer Mecklenburg Gardens likes to cheer on... they are big UC Bearcat fans too! For every football game (except Sunday games), Mecklenburg Gardens provides a free shuttle to and from the games. Start the fun off by grabbing a snack or some dinner and a refreshing beer and then hop on the shuttle and enjoy the game knowing you don't have to fight the parking lot crowds.

The Beer Garden also features a trivia game night on Wednesdays and music on Friday and Saturday nights. It's a cool and shady place to relax (on hot nights there are misters out to cool you down), have a drink, enjoy some food and just absorb the atmosphere. You can also hold special events for up to 120 people in the Beer Hall, which offers a big screen tv, and is right next to the Beer Garden – perfect for enjoying your event inside or out. They often host weddings, private parties, receptions and birthday parties in the Garden, and upstairs they offer a more intimate space for meetings and occasions with smaller crowds.

Oktoberfest is when Mecklenburg Gardens rules as the German place to be! For the whole week leading up to Oktoberfest Zinzinnati, they will be hosting a different event each night with drink and food specials to enjoy all week long. On Monday, September 12th, Sam Adams Brewers will be in, hosting the "stein hoist". The winner at Mecklenburg Gardens will go downtown to compete with other local bar winners to win a trip to Boston to visit Sam Adams Brewery in person. On Tuesday, September 13th, Braxton Brewery will be in house; Wednesday, September 14th will feature Mel's Brewery as well as a pig roast; and Thursday, September 15th Sierra Nevada will be featured. Each brewery will bring their own version of an Oktoberfest beer, to be offered alongside local craft beers. Friday is the start of Oktoberfest, and Mecklenburg Gardens will have a booth there all weekend, so stop by and visit.

Mecklenburg Gardens is more than just beer. They have always had the best in German cuisine on the menu, and it has just been redeveloped by Chef Brett Crow; Crow has worked for Jean-Robert and is now the chef at L in the Great American Tower. A long-time family friend of the owners, Crow consulted with them to create a brand-new menu that is sure to please any palate.

BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

Hit the road in style with the Piston Society

Ever dream of tooling around town on a motorcycle or scooter? It's easy to do in Cincinnati with the Piston Society.

Offering a select variety of motorcycles and urban scooters for rent, you can enjoy the ride of a lifetime while experiencing their family-friendly atmosphere and enthusiasm for riding. If you'd like a tour, just ask. The Piston Society has individual tour guides available that they can refer you to, who are skilled local riders familiar with roads in the area; they can take you out for a 2-8 hour tour! These guides love meeting new people and showing off what's cool and interesting about our area. Got a big group? No problem! The Piston Society has tour groups they've partnered with that you can contact that can accommodate your needs. Want to hit the road on your own? Grab a map and rent a GPS that the Piston Society has already pre-loaded with great routes.

You do need to be 25 years old to rent from the Piston Society, with a valid motorcycle license, as well as purchase their insurance for a safe ride. Passengers have no age restrictions but must be able to reach passenger foot pegs or floorboards of your rental. Helmets are included with your rental, and they have a full shop of motorcycle gear... like gloves, jackets and riding glasses for purchase. To make a reservation, you need to use their online form at www.piston-society.com; repeat customers get a 10% discount – just call to get your discount code!

Adventure awaits you... all you need to do is rent your bike and hit the road with the Piston Society.
