MAYOR'S WELCOME

Dear Visitor:

On behalf of the citizens of Cincinnati, I am honored to invite you to our great city.

Cincinnati has invested billions of dollars in recent downtown and river-front development, including the historic Over-the-Rhine neighborhood and The Banks entertainment district.

Winter is an especially great time to visit our city. In addition to the buzz of the crowds excited about the holiday season, Cincinnati has several special attractions at this time of the year. They include the ice skating rink and large holiday tree at Fountain Square, the Festival of Lights at the Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Garden, and many more!

Key Magazine Cincinnati is a great resource for learning about the many attractions we have to offer. With world-class museums and theaters, one of the top five zoos in the nation, touring Broadway productions and incredible architecture, Cincinnati has something for everyone to enjoy.

Numerous high-profile events have been held in Cincinnati in recent years including the 2015 Major League Baseball All-Star Game and the 2012 World Choir Games. We are honored to welcome thousands of convention visitors to our city each year, and know that your decision to visit the Queen City will not leave you disappointed.

I am confident you will enjoy your stay in Cincinnati. Please enjoy our hospitality, sample our many amenities and have a wonderful time. We are glad you're here!

Sincerely,

Mayor John J. Cranley

There are plenty of packages to choose from, too: all day and half day passes are available, along with season passes perfect for Tri-State area residents who always want to have something exciting to do up their sleeve. The hotel has fabulous Splash and Play packages (available only at www.splashcincinnati.com) if you are looking to make a longer visit, and don't worry if you have a large group: group discounts are available! Everyone does need a pass to enter the waterpark though, even spectators, so be sure you have yours in hand when you get to Splash Cincinnati. And while you'll need your own towels, you definitely won't need sunscreen!

Got a birthday coming up? Celebrate with Splash Cincinnati! You can have a pool party no matter what time of year your birthday falls. ## DESTINATION OF THE MONTH

Visit Indy: The perfect weekend getaway!

What a perfect weekend escape and only a short distance.... Indianapolis! If you haven't been, you must. And if you have, then go again. Stop at the amazing places I'm writing about .... you will be forever thankful.

I was in need of a weekend escape. In a bit under 2 hours... we arrived at The Conrad Hilton in the heart of downtown Indy. Ahhhh. Luxury. Everyone was so friendly upon arrival, so welcoming. The room was up high with a great view. Big fluffy beds with serious pillows.... time to get a move on though and go out and do things!

Off to Milktooth for lunch.... named as one of the best restaurants by Conde Nast Traveler. Chef Jonathan Brooks has been featured on the cover of Food & Wine Magazine as a best new chef. It's located in an old downtown car care garage in Fletcher Place, just minutes from the heart of the city. Be sure to order the TP caerphilly cheddar grilled cheese with black truffle honey and local duck egg. OMG.

After a bit of shopping, we headed to Tastings, a modern, artsy bistro offering wine tastings and great bites... flatbreads, cheese plates and tapas, tucked inside the Conrad of the lobby. We also had great people-watching as the very impressive Sacramento Kings were also staying at the hotel! Hard not to stare.

Time to head over to Banker's Life Fieldhouse (just a short walk) to see the Indianapolis Pacers take on the Kings. If the Pacers are in town on your getaway, it's a must! Such excitement all around.... the fans are very passionate about their team. What a game! Even went into overtime.... Pacers won!

Time for a late bite at Bluebeard, a trendy restaurant in Fletcher Place named after a Kurt Vonnegut novel which trickles into the restaurant's library-like design. I beg you.... order the Pappardelle pasta with Italian sausage Bolognese. Just a perfect large portion of scrumptiousness. I mean lick-the-bowl amazing. We also ordered the Warm Kale salad with ham hock, pepitas, and other tasty treats. I've never had anything like it before. Did I mention the perfect Gin & Tonic? What a great late meal.

Rise and shine! Off to workout (very necessary with all this food intake!) and then relax in the completely redone Conrad Fitness Center and Evan Todd Spa. Incredible indoor pool and jacuzzi! It was hard to drag myself away from such a wonderful spot, in the lounge chair of luxury gazing up at the blue sky through the glass roof, but there were things to do.... food to eat.

Next on the list was brunch at The Garden Table, a local eatery/ juicery serving simple food and cold-pressed juice. With a focus on healthy living, The Garden Table focuses on supporting local businesses and taking care of mother earth... and you can feel it and taste it in all that they prepare! The Tuscan Toast with pesto, arugula, lamb bacon, feta and tomatoes was heavenly, along with andouille sausage hash. We went to the Broad Ripple location as we'd never been to that area.

What a fun surprise! Quaint and welcoming, with great restaurants and shopping.

Off for some culture at the Indianapolis Museum of Art. Wonderful exhibits in an incredible setting. We weren't able to stroll the gardens as the weather was not ideal...maybe next time! Definitely stop in the Museum store, packed full of wonderful trinkets and items highlighted in the museum. Great book selection, and jewelry!

Dinner was at Black Market, tucked on the back end of Mass Ave., one of Indy's hip arts neighborhoods. This gastropub is known for their extensive rum list and innovative dishes in an energetic environment. Cool setting with shared tables...easier to glance at the creative dishes being served all around. A must try are the Marrow Bones, possibly the best we've had! Be sure to eat the bread by Amelia's Bakery... the same bakery providing amazing breads to most of Indy's hippest spots...including Milktooth, Bluebeard, The Garden Table (The Broad Ripple location) and Black Market! So full. Time for bed.

What better to do on a Sunday morning than take a leisurely drive out to Traderspoint Creamery...located in a wonderful setting amongst mansions and rolling fields! I can't even tell you how much we adored this working farm and restaurant. The people, atmosphere, products, and the dining experience at The Loft was just the best. Traderspoint Creamery is an organic dairy farm on the north side of the city. They produce yogurt for Whole Foods nationwide. It's an actual working farm with incredible food, from the milk, to the cheeses, and of course, the BEST YOGURT I've ever had. Ever. Gail Alden, Director of Marketing and Events was on-site.... we insisted she join us and share the wonderful story and history of Trad-erspoint Creamery. So we started ordering.... to die for...each and every course. The cheese board was perfection, featuring housemade organic grassfed cheeses, fig chutney, and Amelia's Bread. Then on to several other items, including Chilaquiles Verdes, a corn tortilla bake with eggs, avocado, fresh cheese curd, tomatillo salsa verde and crème fraiche. Another amazing unique dish! It was the perfect finale to a wonderful weekend, in this incredible farm setting with snow falling. Can't wait to go back!

Please be sure to visit www.VisitIndy.com for information on where to go and what to do. Nate Swick, Communications Coordinator at Visit Indy did an incredible job of finding the best places to go. Nate also filled me in on what's upcoming for Visit Indy... Indy's mayor named 2017 the "Year of Vonnegut" in Indianapolis. Author Kurt Vonnegut grew up in Indy and is known for his novels like Slaughterhouse Five and Cat's Cradle. It's been 10 years since his death and the grand re-opening of a Vonnegut museum on Mass Ave. (April 8th) is big news. In celebration, eleven of the city's best cocktail bars will place a unique, Vonnegut-inspired cocktail on their menu for eleven weeks. For example, Bluebeard will be doing a "Breakfast of Champions" cocktail, made with Laird's Applejack, Amaro Montenegro, Amara di Angostura, Honey, Lemon, Apple Jacks and infused half n half with a Wheaties sugar rim. The cocktails will be on menus February 1 through April 16.

So many fun things to do and so close by. VISIT INDY. I promise you'll have a wonderful trip.
