COVER STORY

A show stopper for your taste buds

It's official! The season has returned — show season that is! You've purchased your tickets and planned your attire, now all you need is to start the evening off right with the pleasure of a delightful meal. Street City is ready to make your night complete.

Step into their newly renovated dining room and feel the artistic vibe. The room has been decorated with city-inspired murals including one of the center stage at the nearby Aronoff Center for the Arts. Located adjacent to the Aronoff and a short distance from the Taft Theater, whatever your Downtown event, they are a perfect location to start from. Their front door is on 6th Street between Main and Walnut.

Indulge in two fantastic options catering to theater-goers and date-nighters alike. The Two Course meal is named Pre-Theater so that diners can segment their experience with a pause to visit the show. The elegant Four Course Meal is designed for true diners. Take your time and enjoy each course. Make an event out of the meal itself. Set your reservations according to the experience you most favor.

Plans for something Unexpected are beginning to show at Street City. The ownership of Prime Cincinnati took over the restaurant and they are working to build a private club inside the establishment. Members will get to indulge in an elegant experience centered around exceptional items and service in an up-scale atmosphere. The menus will include an extensive bourbon list and complimentary bites to supplement the tastings. Club membership will be limited. They look forward to presenting options soon.

Mardi Gras for Homeless Children The 31st Annual

THE BEGINNING...

32 years ago, in Cincinnati, a tragic incident occurred that touched the hearts of our local residents. Four homeless children were living in an abandoned garage and were locked in when their father left them alone.

A fire broke out in the garage, unable to escape, all four children perished.

Realizing children are not always visible behind the homeless adults, the Northern Kentucky Restaurant Association wanted to help, so Mardi Gras for Homeless Children was born 31 years ago.

Today, homeless children continues to be a major challenge in our community. Desperate area children in Northern Kentucky and Cincinnati have benefitted immensely from the actions of so many who have volunteered, donated, and attended in support of this annual event that feeds over 12,000 of our community's homeless children annually.

Join the fun at the most unique, all-inclusive culinary charity event with over 50 area restaurants in truly Mardi-Gras style and for the best reason ever – our kids!

DISTILLERY OF THE MONTH

Check out Northside Distilling

Northside Distilling began as a basement hobby—two friends with a still, exploring their passion for authentic, high-quality craft spirits. Before long, word spread and a weekend pastime became a bona fide business.

To meet growing demand, operations were moved out of the basement to the family barn located in Cincinnati's historic Northside neighborhood, where the brand was officially born and began expanding a line of spirits known for its local flair.

Northside continues to grow, and with another move—this time to Cincinnati's vibrant downtown scene—Northside Distilling has further broadened its offerings of award-winning, authentic spirits with deep yet smooth taste profiles. With each sip, savor the flavor that is unique to the Northside.

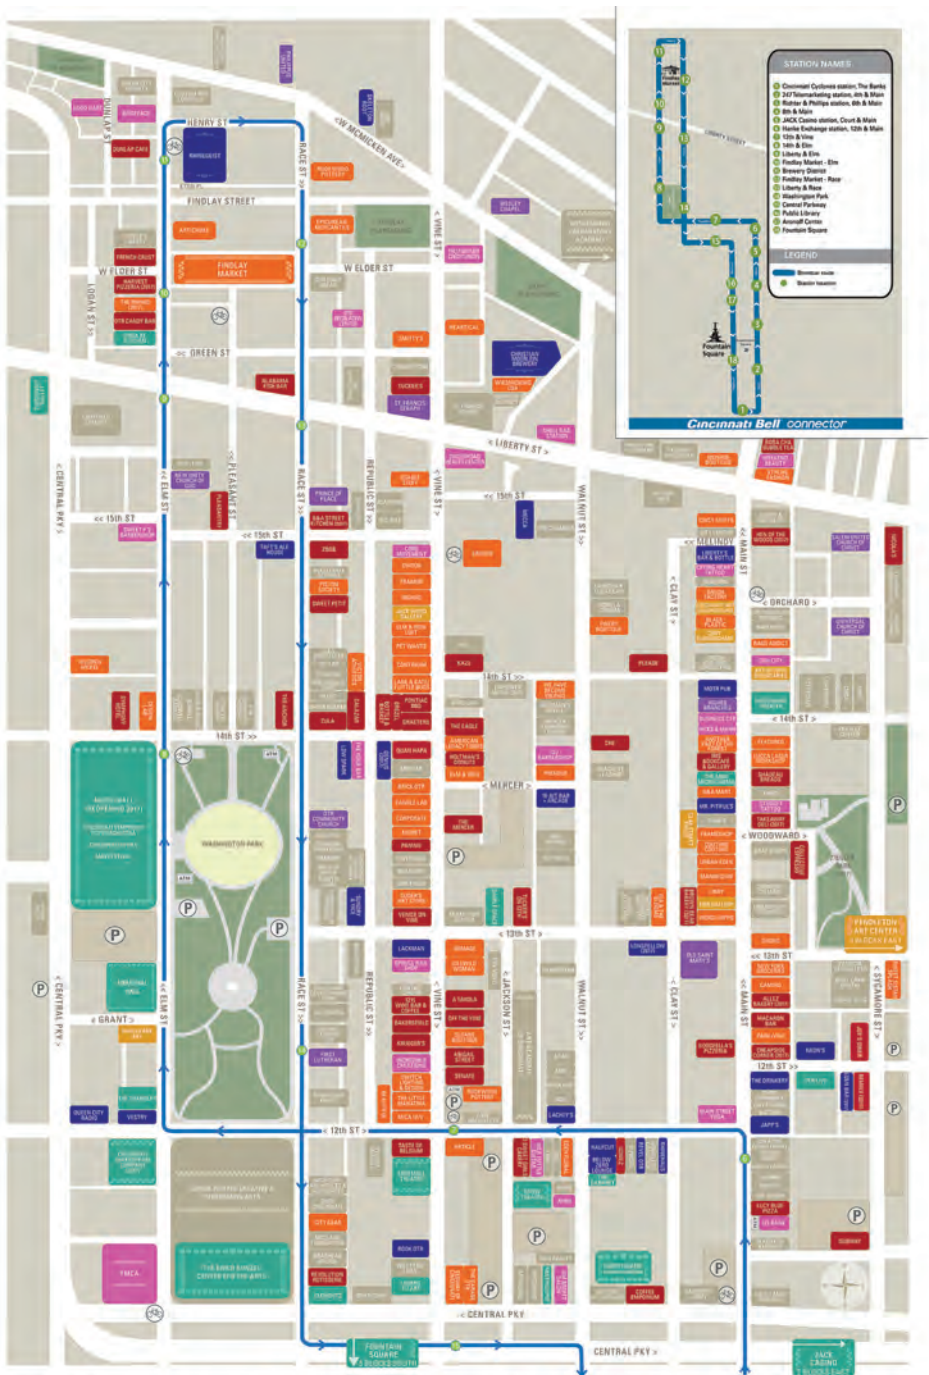

Northside Distilling is Cincinnati's first distillery since Prohibition. We currently produce bourbon, gin, vodka, American agave and seasonal rum as well as limited-edition specialty releases and private label spirits.

Our Race Street location offers tours, free tastings, private events and an interactive shop-
