EVENT SPOTLIGHT

Shen Yun Brings 5,000 Years to Cincinnati

Exquisite beauty from the heavens. Profound wisdom from dynasties past. Discover authentic Chinese culture, as Shen Yun Performing Arts, the world's premier classical Chinese dance and music company, comes to Aronoff Center in February.

Shen Yun, a New York-based company, was founded in 2006 by an impressive group of Chinese artists. Their dream was to create a renaissance for mankind's most ancient heritage. Today, their wish has become an international phenomenon.

Shen Yun performs in 150 cities worldwide. With breathtaking dances, gorgeous costumes, live orchestra, and dynamic backdrops, this is a show brimming with themes of courage, hope, and triumph of good over evil. Shen Yun is the world's only company depicting Chinese culture as it had been before it was nearly destroyed by decades of communist rule.

Shen Yun features hundreds of handmade costumes—showcasing apparel from China's 5,000 years of history. Their exquisite colors blend seamlessly with the animated backdrops, instantly transporting the audience to another world. The animation also contains a few surprises, but those are best left for the performance.

At the end of a cold winter, Shen Yun's warm embrace of this ancient heritage is a great way to welcome in the new season, and is a highly accessible, enlightening, and entertaining experience.

Shen Yun at Aronoff Center March 25-27. For tickets and more information, visit www.ShenYun.com/Cincinnati

Has zoom gotten to you? The upclose and personal of virtual meetings is the new normal. . . .Dr. Lawrence Kurtzman of Kurtzman Plastic Surgery can help you with the droopy eyelids that give you that angry or tired look. Blepharoplasty (or eyelid tuck) is a quick, in-office procedure utilizing local anesthesia. Downtime and recovery is minimal. People may not even realize you had the procedure done. . . but will comment that you look refreshed! Dr. Kurtzman always says. . . If it looks like plastic surgery, it's bad plastic surgery! Mardi Gras for Homeless Children The 31st Annual

The Beginning...

32 years ago, in Cincinnati, a tragic incident occurred that touched the hearts of our local residents. Four homeless children were living in an abandoned garage and were locked in when their father left them alone.

A fire broke out in the garage, unable to escape,
all four children perished.

Realizing children are not always visible behind the homeless adults, the Northern Kentucky Restaurant Association wanted to help, so Mardi Gras for Homeless Children was born 31 years ago.

Today, homeless children continues to be a major challenge in our community. Desperate area children in Northern Kentucky and Cincinnati have benefitted immensely from the actions of so many who have volunteered, donated, and attended in support of this annual event that feeds over 12,000 of our community's homeless children annually.

Join the fun at the most unique, all-inclusive culinary charity event with over 50 area restaurants in truly Mardi-Gras style and for the best reason ever – our kids!
