CINCINNATI WELCOME

Friends,

On behalf of the City of Cincinnati, I am thrilled to welcome you! We are honored to host you in our great city, and I can't wait for you to learn all about what makes us special.

You're going to have a wonderful stay as you get to know our 52 diverse, vibrant, and walkable neighborhoods. Each community in our city is home to distinct and rich cultures, business centers, and personalities – but together, they make up one unified and proud Cincinnati. From downtown to College Hill, from the West Side to the East Side, you will find stunning architecture, exciting entertainment opportunities, and energetic residents ready to welcome you. We love our home, and we can't wait to show you why.

Key Magazine Cincinnati is a great resource for learning about all the amazing attractions we have to offer in the area. With top-rated museums, theaters, parks, and restaurants – and one of the highest ranked zoos in the nation – there is something for everyone in the Queen City.

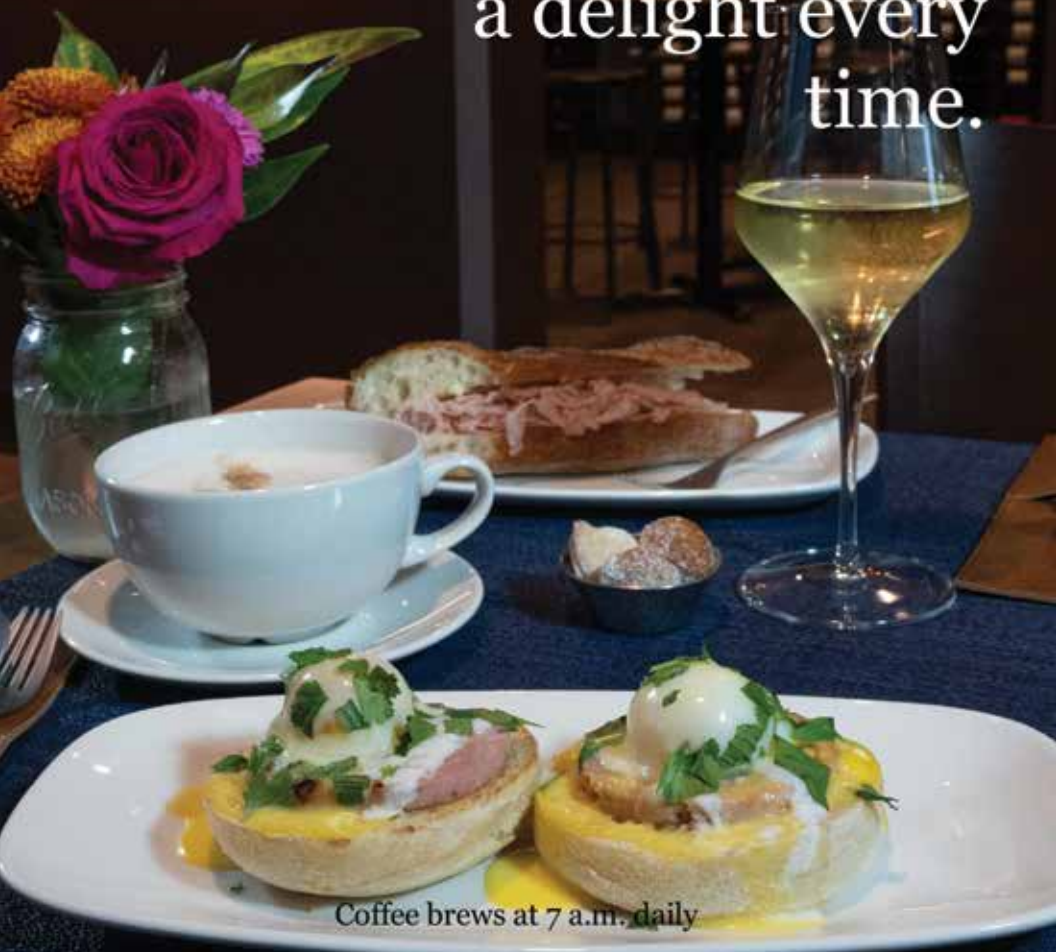

We are honored to welcome thousands of visitors among our guests each year, and we know your decision to visit will not leave you disappointed. Thank you for coming to Cincinnati, and we're excited to see you back here soon.

Sincerely,

Aftab Pureval

COVER STORY

Dinner under the Stars

Sebastian Castillo has been hard at work this year... Not only with running 2 fabulous restaurants... he is now wrapping up his campaign for "Real Men Wear Pink" for the American Cancer Society. With a goal of $75,000, his campaign Finale Event on October 28 At Nowhere Else Farm... A fabulous dinner and concert, with round-trip transportation from Prime Cincinnati downtown, is a MUST ATTEND!

The timing couldn't be more perfect as the event is taking place during Breast Cancer Awareness Month... a disease affecting almost every family.

Breast cancer affects everyone - it doesn't matter if you're a man or a woman. That's why Sebastian has stepped up to fight breast cancer. By raising money and awareness through Real Men Wear Pink, Sebastian is helping to save more lives.

Sebastian Castillo states, "Why I Support the American Cancer Society... Every day, the American Cancer Society is saving more lives from breast cancer than ever before. They're helping people take steps to reduce their risk of breast cancer or find it early, when it's easier to treat. They provide free information and services when and where people need it. They fund groundbreaking breast cancer research and they're working to ensure access to mammograms for women who need them.

I am most excited to make an impact. Being raised by my mother while my father was at work, we developed a relationship that could never be replicated or traded for anything in the world. I am genuinely excited to be able to be a part of a group that will raise money to put an end to breast cancer."

Castillo is one of the Top Ten Real Men Ambassadors, and won the 2022 Dancing for the Stars!

Specials thanks and support to Jeanette Alteneau from TriHealth, and Deborah Morgan of Cincinnati Arts Association for nominating Sebastian!

The final event on October 28 at Nowhere Else Farm will be an evening to remember... A fabulous menu is planned with great music in a spectacular setting.

Do your part to help end Cancer... attend this event and contribute with a perfect evening dining and dancing under the stars! We will be there, and look forward to seeing all of you!

EXHIBIT OF THE MONTH

Dinosaurs in Antarctica?

We've all seen the movies: a serene tropical forest ruled by stealthy raptors and a menacing T-Rex as triceratops and brachiosauruses graze in lush plains nearby. And we see paleontologists digging for their remains in the heat and dirt of the American west. So we understand if the thought of dinosaurs in Antarctica is a little hard to fathom. Let us explain.

Antarctica wasn't always a land of snow and ice with penguins teetering along its shores. Over 200 million years ago it was part of the supercontinent Gondwana – including parts of what we know as South America, Africa, Australia, the Indian subcontinent and Arabia – and situated much closer to the tropical regions of the world, making the land that is now Antarctica a landscape of lush woodland where dinosaurs thrived. Dinosaurs of Antarctica at Cincinnati Museum Center beautifully recreates the forest landscape and surrounds you with fossils and casts of never-before-seen dinosaurs.

As for the heat and dirt of a North American dig site, you won't find that today. Instead, it's an intimidating stretch of ice and rock, as forbidding today as it was when the first Arctic explorers trekked across it over 100 years ago (you'll meet some of them in the exhibition). Airplanes and helicopters help provide improved access and remove fossils while power tools help penetrate centuries of rock, but the dig isn't for the faint of heart. It's a cold, isolated landscape.

But 200 million years ago it was thundering with incredible dinosaurs unlike any you've ever seen.

See for yourself at Cincinnati Museum Center's Dinosaurs of Antarctica, open through January 15, 2023.

‘Back to Abnormal’

Art Beyond Boundaries Gallery invites you to attend our FOTOFOCUS exhibition, ‘Back to Abnormal,’ starting Friday, Sept. 9, 2022. This will showcase the work of seasoned photographers participating in the biennial FOTOFOCUS program in the historic Over-the-Rhine arts district. The exhibition will run until Nov. 4, 2022.

‘Back to Abnormal,’ is a group exhibition presenting photographs that express artistic perceptions of the impact attributed to the 2020 pandemic. The photographers seek to document, represent, or make personal or artistic statements about the extreme excesses the world is currently witnessing collapse of governments, war, and the erosion of social, political, and law enforcement institutions and their impact on health, education, and family structures.

Join us to experience this original art and meet the ABB staff. Show will also be available to the public during ‘Second Sunday on Main,’ Sunday, Sept. 11, 2022 from 12 pm to 5 pm. Admission is free.

Art Beyond Boundaries provides a professional, mainstream fine arts exhibition venue for artists with disabilities, located at 1410 Main Street in the historic Over-the-Rhine arts district. With your support, we can continue providing a gallery, workshops, programs, and services for our artists and people with disabilities. For more information, “friend” or “follow” the gallery on Facebook , Instagram, and/or contact the gallery.

EVENT OF THE MONTH

Jewish Cincinnati: A Photographic Record by J. Miles Wolf at Skirball Museum

In 2018, Cincinnati native J. Miles Wolf documented current, former, and now extinct places of worship in the Jewish community. With his new show at the Skirball Museum, Wolf extends his incisive exploration to a broader integration of the Jewish community within Cincinnati, focusing on photographs that document Jewish contributions in all walks of life. Aligning with the 2021–2022 celebration of the Jewish Cincinnati Bicentennial, this exhibition affords the opportunity for Wolf to train his discerning lens on former places of business like the Krohn-Fechheimer Shoe Factory, the Fechheimer Brothers Company (still manufacturing uniforms in Cincinnati today), the Manischewitz matzo factory (first commercial matzo factory in America), Bloch Printing, and the American Israelite newspaper, to name a few.

Fifteen new images join the original eighteen from the 2018 exhibition, and the installation carries a new narrative addressing the contributions of Jewish Cincinnatians in the spheres of business, civic life, social welfare, faith, the arts, healthcare, philanthropy, and popular culture. Wolf expands his reach to Northern Kentucky and the West Side, where several congregations thrived during the 19th and early 20th centuries. Social clubs, sports venues, and the nation's first Jewish hospital are also documented in Wolf's signature photographs that combine historical images, carefully culled from local archives, with city views that capture the here and now of these locales.

Jewish Cincinnati: A Photographic Record by J. Miles Wolf is part of the 2022 FotoFocus Biennial. Support provided by FotoFocus and the Jewish Cincinnati Bicentennial. The exhibition opens with a reception and artist's talk on October 27 at 5:30 pm and will run through January 29, 2023.

MUSEUM OF THE MONTH

Freedom Center offers free admission on fifth and third Sundays each month

Museums have the power to shape and reflect their communities, making organizations like the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center community anchors and conveners of dialogue. They provide insight and perspective into our shared history, providing lessons from the past that are priceless in our ongoing quest for equity. Further, the Freedom Center creates a collective heritage, a more complete history that unites our local and national community. Access to the Freedom Center and its galleries equips a new generation of freedom seekers and advocates with the education and resources needed to make positive personal and collective impact.

That's why the Freedom Center, with the support of the Fifth Third Foundation, created Fifth Third Community Days – free admission on the fifth and third Sunday each month, plus MLK Day and Juneteenth, through 2026. The free admission includes special exhibitions and community programming that enhances the visit.

“Our Fifth Third Community Days are transformative for our community,” said Woodrow Keown, Jr., president and COO of the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center. “Fifth Third Foundation’s support provides opportunities for more people to learn about freedom through an immersive experience at the Freedom Center. In the process, we can create more advocates for equity and bring about meaningful social justice change by inspiring future generations of freedom seekers.”

Upcoming Fifth Third Community Days include October 16 & 30, November 20 and December 18.

About the Biennial

The 2022 FotoFocus Biennial, now in its sixth iteration, activates over 100 projects at museums, galleries, universities, and public spaces throughout Greater Cincinnati, Northern Kentucky, Dayton and Columbus, Ohio in October 2022. Each Biennial is structured around a unifying theme: for 2022 that theme, World Record, considers photography's extensive record of life on earth while exploring humankind's impact on the natural world.

FotoFocus welcomes global artists, curators, critics, educators, and regional visitors to Cincinnati with exhibitions, talks, performances, screenings, and panel discussions during an expanded week of programming, September 7th-October 8, 2022.

Support for this 2022 FotoFocus Biennial exhibition was provided by FotoFocus.
