EVENT OF THE MONTH

47 years of Concours d'Elegance

Now in its 47th year, the Cincinnati Concours d'Elegance is set to charm automobile enthusiasts on the weekend of June 7–8, with a captivating theme: “Icons of British Motoring.” The festivities will begin with an exhilarating driving tour through the picturesque Ohio countryside, offering a perfect backdrop for classic car lovers. This drive originates in enchanting Mariemont Square, OH.

On Saturday evening, attendees can enjoy a delightful hangar party held at Executive Jet Management, Lunken Airport. It will be filled with lively conversations and a celebration of automotive excellence. The main event on Sunday, in Ault Park, promises to be a spectacular showcase of elegance and innovation. In addition to eight classes of historic British motorcars and motorcycles, this year's Special Display Classes will highlight the 100th Anniversary of Chrysler, showcase the storied legacy of Indian Motorcycles, and feature a fascinating collection of Automotive Oddities — The Strange and Wonderful.

Along with these extraordinary displays, there will be 13 annual classes illuminating a rich tapestry of automotive history. Honoring this year's legacy is Jeff Lane of the esteemed Lane Motor Museum, who will be celebrated as the Honored Collector. Stop by our beer garden for a refreshing drink and plan to visit our many food trucks available in the concession area. For tickets and detailed information about this exciting automotive event, please visit www.ohioconcours.com.
